Satoshi Nakamoto is the name used by the presumed pseudonymous^{[1][2][3][4]} person or persons who developed bitcoin, authored the bitcoin white paper, and created and deployed bitcoin's original reference implementation.^[5] As part of the implementation, Nakamoto also devised the first blockchain database.^[6] In the process, Nakamoto was the first to solve the double-spending problem for digital currency using a peer-to-peer network. Nakamoto was active in the development of bitcoin up until December 2010.^[7] Many people have claimed, or have been claimed, to be "Satoshi".
